

PIAA DISTRICT III GIRLS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS (1972-2024) TEAM CHRONOLOGIES

Beginning in 2016-2017, PIAA and District III grouped girls' basketball in six classifications – 6A, 5A, 4A, 3A, 2A, and 1A. The number and designation of classifications have changed several times throughout the years.

Here is chronology of the classifications:

- 1972 through 1975: One classification, which is now identified as Class 3A
- 1976 through 1977: Two classifications
The largest classification was called Class AAA (now Class 3A)
The smallest classification was called Class AA (now Class 2A)
- 1978 through 1983: Three classifications
The largest classification was called Class AAA (now Class 3A)
The middle class was called Class AA (now Class 2A)
The smallest class was called Class A (now Class 1A)
- 1984 through 2016: Four classifications
The largest had been called Class AAAA (now Class 4A), the second-largest Class AAA (now Class 3A), the third-largest Class AA (now Class 2A) and the smallest Class A (now Class 1A)
- 2017 forward: Starting with the 2016-2017 school year, District III's basketball classifications are identified as 6A, 5A, 4A, 3A, 2A and 1A.

PIAA has decided as a matter of consistency to rebrand the historical classes from the first girls' tournament in 1973 through 1983; District III will do the same. As a result, the largest class from 1973 through 1983 is designated as Class 3A, the second largest as Class 2A and the smallest as Class 1A. From 1984 through 2016, the designations Class 4A, Class 3A, Class 2A and Class 1A are used.

NOTE: In the 2020-2021 school year, PIAA conducted a state tournament with only district champions as qualifiers due to the coronavirus pandemic. As a result, District III did not play consolation or place games. District III did play of a full championship bracket in 2020-2021.

The District III Girls Basketball Championships chronologies begin on the ensuing page:
