(z)-Wilson defeated Conestoga Valley 4-0 in the 2018 4A quarterfinal round. It was later discovered Wilson had used an ineligible player in that game. In maintaining consistency with PIAA policy, that playoff loss, while technically a forfeit win, will stand to reflect the historical record.

In maintaining consistency with PIAA policy, those three playoff victories will stand to reflect the historical record.

NOTES:

*-indicates an administrative point awarded following a tiebreaker

CK – Corner Kicks

PK – Penalty Kicks

OT – Overtime (the number of overtime periods played is indicated)

(f) – COVID-19 – In 2020, a viral pandemic forced PIAA and District III to adopt changes to the normal structure and conduct of the boys' soccer championship. One of the changes was a requirement that if a school could not compete in a playoff contest due to issues with the virus – the related illness was called COVID-19 – that contest would be forfeited and the unaffected team would advance in the bracket. If this occurred in a championship match, the unaffected team would be declared the champion.

(z) – Notes on Wilson's use of an ineligible player throughout the 2018 Class 4A championship.
