NOTES:

*-indicates administrative point awarded for win in strokes or shootout

OT – Overtime (number of overtime periods are denoted). The number of overtimes and the game-winning procedure changed throughout the years. Currently, post-season games end on the first goal scored in either of two overtime periods. If no goal is scored in overtime, the game proceeds to shootouts.

AT – Game decided by team with more attack time; attack time was utilized following one scoreless overtime period. Attack time is a team's time of possession in its opponent's zone (inside the 25-yard line) in overtime; used from 1975 season through 1977.

PS – Game decided by penalty strokes. Strokes began in 1978 and were used through the 1984 season. Shootouts were used from 1985 through 1992; penalty strokes resumed in 1993 through the 2017 season. Shootouts were re-introduced in 2018.

Penalty strokes are shots from a set position, centered in front of the cage. Each team is awarded up to five strokes, alternating between each team until a team has won a best-of-five situation. If the score is still level after the best of five, play continues with another until a clear winner is established in sudden death.

SO – Game decided by shootouts; shootouts were and are utilized after two scoreless overtime periods. Shootouts began in 1985 and continued through the 1992 season; penalty strokes were re-introduced in 1993 and were used through the 2017 season. Shootouts returned in 2018 and are the current final tiebreaker.

Shootouts begin with the attacker and ball placed at the 25-yard line and the goalkeeper standing on the goal line. The official starts play with a whistle and both attacker and goalkeeper can move according to NHFS field hockey rules. Each team is awarded up to five shootouts, alternating between each team until a team has won a best-of-five situation. If the score is still level after the best of five, play continues with another until a clear winner is established in sudden death.
